MILLIONS OF BRITONS REALISE THAT

MILLIONS of people in the British Isles are reaching the same conclusion as the National Front about General Elections. And millions have reached the same conclusion as the NF about Euro-Elections. THEY ARE A DANGEROUS FARCE.

The pitifully low turnouts at these elections, but especially Euro-Elections show that most people realise this. They have refused to give a false air of democratic respectability to Westminster or Common Market rule because they know that their views, and therefore their votes, count for nothing.

That these elections are a farce is best exemplified by the European Elections because they are even more centralist than those at Westminster. This is why even less people than at General Elections bother to vote or take them seriously. The fact that they are a dangerous con is more easily seen. The very idea that one overpaid MP can truly represent hundreds of thousands of people is absurd.

Even if an MP cared about the views of ordinary people, how can one politician based hundreds of miles away, and who was probably imposed upon the area in the first place knowing nothing about the people or their needs, even find out what his constituents want. Not that this glaring fact bothers them anyway. They all admit that their representation amounts to them deciding exactly what is in the best interests of their constituents according to their Party line or ideological leanings.

Many people have come to realise that to vote in such an election gives the EEC the impression of being a democratic structure where ordinary people count and their views are acted upon.

PRIVATE CLUB

But the truth is that the EEC is a private club run for the benefit of Big Business, the Banks and corrupt bureaucrats. These are the few parasites who gain from the free movement of money, immigrants and goods from backhanders and food mountains. The rest of us just get higher prices, VAT and even more meddling throughout our everyday lives.

The EEC is not designed for ordinary people, nor do ordinary people have any real way of getting their wishes known, let alone acted upon. Euro-Elections are a cheap facade designed to hide the fact that the EEC is a dictatorship run for the Super-Rich by non-elected bureaucrats.

The pathetically low numbers of people who are prepared to take part in this sham demonstrate that most people know that whoever gets elected is irrelevant. Any vote cast, for any candidate, is a vote cast for more interference in our affairs,

EURO- ELECTIONS HELP TO TIGHTEN OUR CHAINS

THE NF has consistently opposed parliamentary elections since 1986 because of the democratic "representation" hoax. Instead, we aim to encourage ordinary people to build their own alternative power base - in their own communities - as a shield against the dictatorship of parliament and the whims of self-seeking politicians.

for more corruption, for more incompetence, and yet another nail in the coffin of our prosperity, traditions and freedoms.

ECONOMIC BLOC?

But just because the National Front correctly opposes the Common Market it doesn't mean that we are anti-European.

The FEC is wrong because it views Europe purely in economic terms - a new United States where every local custom, regional tradition and national identity which could get in the way of maximum profit must be swept aside. The EEC is the Europe of the Merchants. Yet Europe is much, much more than a mere economic bloc.

The nations of the British Isles share a common cultural heritage with the other nations of Europe. We share a common racial identity. We also share the occupation of foreign troops and missiles - whether they are Soviet or American. And we will face the same perils in a 21st century world dominated by the growing economic strength, and political and military muscle of Japan and China.

Clearly the nations of Europe must co-operate closely on matters such as defensive military capability, high-tech research and the fostering of the truly European culture in all of its diversity, threatened throughout our continent by the Coca-Cola anti-culture of the U.S.A.

But co-operation in such areas does not mean that we must all submerge our own special identities in the sea of bureaucracy, corruption and uniformity known as the EEC.

EUROPE OF THE PEOPLES

This Capitalist perversion of the true Europe, this "Europe of the Merchants" is the greatest threat to all of our British nations and regions and to every other part of Capitalist controlled Europe. This is why we demand its abolition and replacement by a Europe of Free Peoples.

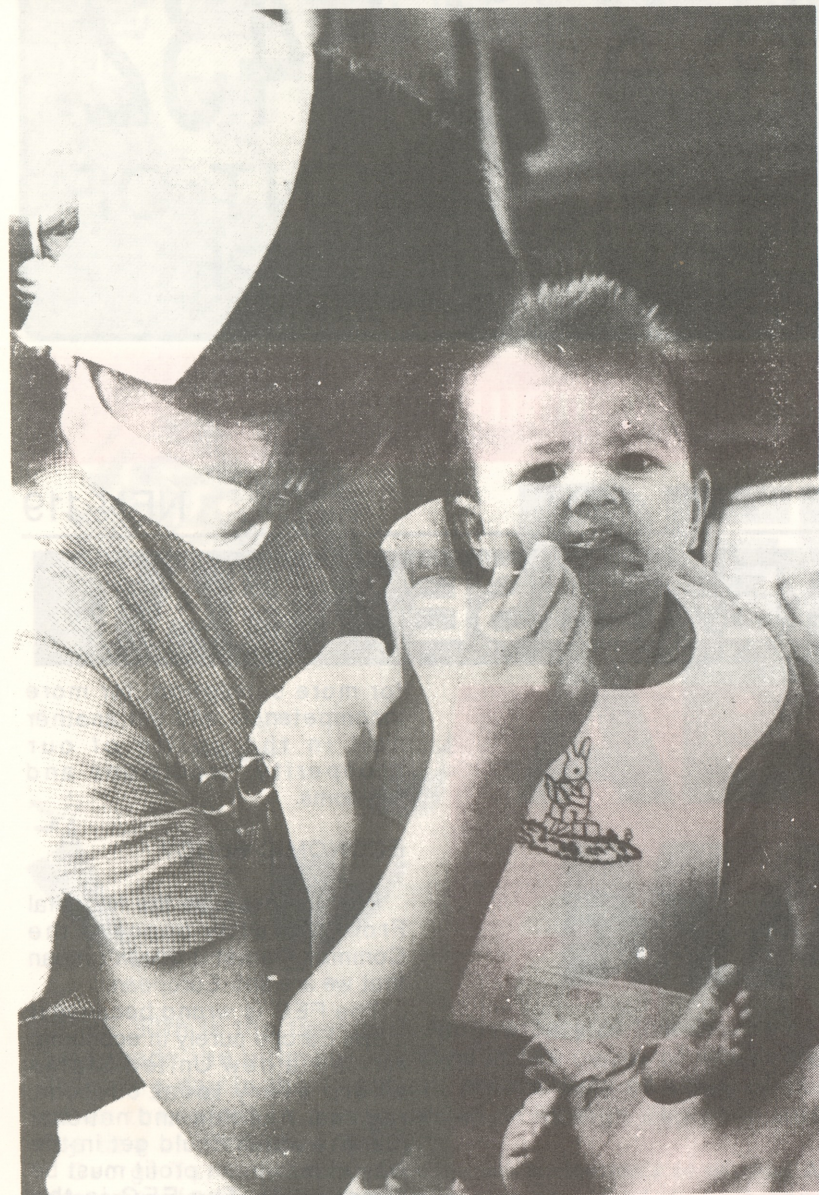

In our Europe, the real Europe, the Europe of the Future, delegates from every nation, every region and federation, from Ulster to the Ukraine and Eire to Estonia, will meet in a European Congress to arrange the kind of vital co-operation and mutual benefit outlined above. But each delegated area must run its own internal social and economic affairs, free from meddling bureaucrats. The sovereignty of every European nation and region, from Bavaria to Brittany, and Mannin to Moldavia, will be guaranteed.

This is why the Europe of the Future, a Europe that draws its life and inspiration from the past, is also known as the Europe of 100 Flags.

A VISION NOT A DREAM!

HOME AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

COELIAC SUFFERERS ATTACKED BY TORIES

The caring society is fast becoming the "couldn't care less" society.

In recent months the Tory government has been at great pains to suggest that its projected National Health Service "reforms" are not aimed at creating a two tier system of health care - one for the rich and one for the poor. That this government has a record of saying one thing and doing another is something that is not lost on our peoples, and explains why opinion polls show that the vast majority know this government is out to eliminate the NHS in all but name.

That money is the sole criterion by which this government operates can hardly be doubted. Whilst patriots speak of Social Justice for all, Tories speak of "choice", as though people with low incomes have any choice beyond having to go without something or other.

Recently the government showed its callousness towards our peoples when a Department of Health (sic) circular was sent to all General Practitioners telling them that only in "exceptional cases" should gluten free food be made available on prescription. What does this mean?

COELIAC DISEASE

Although Coeliac disease is not one that many people have heard about, it is, nonetheless, a very common complaint in the British Isles. It is a disease which attacks the small intestine in that the gluten in food stuffs made from wheat, barley, oats and rye prevents it from absorbing nutrients necessary to the functioning of a healthy body.

Coeliac disease comes in both mild and acute forms, although there is no set pattern of symptoms. It can result in severe muscle stiffness, stomach pains, nausea, cramp, blackouts and asthma. It frequently results in malnourished people who suffer from listlessness and depression. There is no cure, although if the gluten is removed from food the small intestine can, with time, return to normal.

DIET

This means that in the past doctors have prescribed gluten free flour in order that the afflicted people can eat something approaching a normal diet. Even so the diet is very limited largely because gluten is present in so much of our foodstuffs.

Not surprisingly, the cost of gluten free products is high and this is something that the government is now determined to pass on to sufferers. Most have been used to getting prescription gluten free flour; unacceptable says the government. At £3.50 per package - and most sufferers use up to 3 packets a week just to survive - the government insists that there must be more "choice" in the health field, and sufferers know that this will inevitably mean the 'choice' of going without. In some cases it is quite likely that it will lead to malnutrition and quite possibly worse.

CAUGHT OUT

When the Coeliac Society, which is organized in about 60 branches, approached the Department of Health about this circular they were told that there had been "a misunderstanding", that in fact there was no reason at all for doctors to cease gluten free flour on prescription. Happy with this answer the Society informed its substantial membership - it grew by nearly 3,000 in 1988 - that all was well, and to hand a Society circular to any doctor who was proving awkward. Yet days later, members were being circulated again asking them to bring pressure to bear on MPs and the General Medical Council through a letter writing campaign. Clearly, the Society has discovered that "government assurances" are not every thing they seem.

SUPPORT

That the government is seeking to persecute yet another group of our society through "free market health care" - that is letting the sick and the poor go to the wall - is no surprise, but it tells us clearly once again that the power of Money in this country has never been so ruthless or coldblooded.

We urge all readers to write to their MPs and local newspapers making this scandal known in the hope that something can be salvaged before our sick are sacrificed yet again on the altar of Thatcherite greed.

DISILLUSIONED SQUADIES

BRITISH soldiers in Belize are growing increasingly disillusioned with having to sit in a mosquito-ridden swamp to protect the ungrateful Belizeans from neighbouring Guatemala.

The final straw for many was a recent attack by drug crazed natives on three young off-duty para-engineers out for a drink one evening. The Belizean gang made anti-British remarks and offensive gestures, then attacked the three with knives and machetes.

One of the soldiers, 19 year old John Allabyrne, from Stratford, East London, was stabbed in the stomach. Army surgeons said that he lost so much blood that he would have died if he had not been so fit. One of his companions was stabbed in the back, while the other had his arm slashed open.

Why should our lads have to put up with this sort of thing from the very people they are supposed to be protecting? Why on earth should it bother the nations of our islands if Belize quarrels with her neighbour? The whole country isn't worth the bones of a London para-engineer.

The idea that our forces have any role in the world other than protecting our own national interest is an absurdly outdated hangover from the empire. Nor is the army's own claim - that our troops need training in jungle warfare - any more valid than the Foreign Office claim that we have a duty to meddle in other peoples business. For jungle warfare training is not a lot of good when it comes to defending these islands or Europe as a whole - and that is the only good reason for fighting at all.

CORRECTION

We have been informed by our Ulster comrades that a reference to a sectarian killing made in a recent Psst! column was in error.

The milkman referred to in the column had in fact been claimed by PIRA as one of their volunteers in an Easter "Roll of Honour" published in An Phoblacht.

SERFING IN THE U.K.

THE WESTERN MASS MEDIA has quite rightly condemned President Ceausescu of Romania as he presides over the demolition of thousands of villages in a policy of "systemisation." This policy of systemisation will wipe out the traditional life style of the peasants, herding them like cattle into new "Agri-Industrial Centres."

But back home, is the ruling establishment any better in it's inhumanity towards it's people? Our people are also herded into soulless new towns and tower blocks. It is true that people are provided with theme parks, concrete cows and leisure centres, which provide organized fun and base amusements for the system's serfs. But when it comes down to it, people in the East are exploited by Communism and in the West the people are exploited by Capitalism. But should a man from outer space visit our planet could he tell any real difference between the system in the East and the system in the West? He would see that both political systems dominant in the world belong to the same System and were spawned by the same Masonic philosophy.

POLLUTION FOR PROFIT

BRITISH STEEL one of the world's most profitable steel companies, is also one of Britain's worst polluters.

Last year it made a profit of £419 million. It also claims to have "an ongoing commitment to pollution control." Yet look at the record of just five of its biggest plants.

* SCUNTHORPE pressed steel plate works pumps poison into a tributary of the river Trent. Even after treatment, the level of the cyanide was 10 times the permitted level.

* ORGREAVE coking plant exceeded its permitted pollution levels 18 times last year. Carbon particulates, oil and grease are discharged directly into the river Rother.

* BRINSWORTH works, near the Yorkshire Orgreave plant, runs three effluent pipes straight into a tributary of the river Don. One measurement last year showed 16 times the permitted level of oil and grease.

* THE LACKENBY plant on Teeside is permitted to discharge effluent containing 60 times the amount of ammonia which is known to kill animal and plant life in rivers.

* RAVENSCRAIG steel plate and wire plant in Scotland discharges ammonia, zinc and cyanide straight into a stream flowing into the Clyde. Eight out of nine samples from an outfall pipe exceeded pollution limits last year. On one day the site discharged 69 times the permitted level of suspended solids, but was not prosecuted.

In fact, British Steel seems to have virtual immunity from prosecution by the Water Boards. In spite of the shocking record of the Scunthorpe plant, for example, Severn Trent Water have only prosecuted British Steel once in the last ten years. For what the authority described as a "serious" pollution offence, the company was fined a mere £480.

It is clear that British Steel is being allowed to get away with murdering the environment in order to fatten up company profits for privatization. Which is why we unfortunate consumers are going to be forced to pay extra for our water to cover the costs of clearing up the pollution after the privatization of the water authorities.

The polluter profits, the consumer pays. If that isn't fair, it's certainly good for business.

NATIONAL FREEDOM

Britain is a family of Nations - England, Wales, Scotland, Kernow, Mannin, Eire and Ulster - linked by blood and history. The peoples of all nations have an inalienable right to self-determination and to preserve their native cultures and traditions. We look forward to the day when Eire voluntarily rejoins the future federated British family of nations.

RACIAL SEPARATION

Race is the main determining factor in nationality. Racially mixed societies cannot form one nation and are therefore unstable.

No one race is 'superior' to others, but they are all different. Racial integration threatens all races. Humane repatriation is better for us all than endless repression and racial violence.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

The nation is a great family. Every member of our national family has the absolute right to care at the nation's expense when young, sick or old. There must be equal opportunity for all, but unearned privilege for none.

WELL DISTRIBUTED PROPERTY

The realistic opportunity to own one's own home and place of work is the right of all our people. Direct ownership of the means of production and distribution is essential for individual freedom, for family stability and for the best use of our national resources.

SANITY IN FINANCE

The right to create the credit needed by the economy must belong to the people's government. The banks, which have usurped this right, must be stripped of their unjust gains and power. The National Debt is based on usury and must be repudiated.

RESPECT FOR NATURE

We hold the environment in trust for future generations. Pollution of the land, sea and air, and of the gene pool through radiation, is a betrayal of that trust.

POPULAR RULE

Parliamentary representation is a fraud. Party rule is a cloak for the dictatorship of vested interests and media bosses. Government must be in the hands of the people themselves, through new information technology, and the election of delegates to carry out their wishes. Power must be devolved to the lowest possible level.

THE ARMED PEOPLE

The freedoms given by these principles must be defended through armed neutrality, with well-equipped national defence forces involving the entire adult population. Power, wealth and arms in the hands of the people!

REVOLUTION NOT REFORM

These changes cannot be brought about by tinkering within the System, or by relying on the System's own institutions, such as parliament, schools or the courts. They can only spring from a National Revolution. This revolution must begin in the hearts of individuals, then spread by their example to involve whole communities in revolutionary structures such as alternative councils and schools, neighbourhood patrols and self-help groups. Once we cease to depend on the institutions of the old State, it will be swept aside.

THE THIRD WAY

The growth of these ideas in nation after nation shows that a new force is rising in the world for the 21st century. Leaving behind the sterile hatreds of Capitalism, Nazism and Communism, this Third Way offers a real future for all our peoples. We urge all those who agree with these principles to join with us in the struggle to build the National Front - the Movement of the Future.

HOME AFFAIRS, ANALYSIS & COMMENT

RECENT attacks on the NF in the pages of the UDA magazine Ulster seem to suggest that there has been an outbreak of amnesia in their editorial office. The National Front is berated for giving coverage to Colonel Gaddafi's Green Book and over the fact that three of our key officials visited Libya for a fact-finding mission and exchange visit last year.

Something odd here, we thought. And on checking our files, we found a copy of the UVF magazine Combat from back in 1975 (Volume 1, No 32). There, under the banner headline that the "UDA seek aid from Communist (sic) regime", was the complaint that "UDA Assemblyman, Mr Glenn Barr from Londonderry, together with three other UDA officials, flew out to Tripoli recently in order to put their case to the Libyan regime for financial aid."

One reason the NF delegation went was so as to be able to put the case for an independent Ulster and against IRA imperialism to senior Libyan officials directly. This we were able to do. We don't know why the UDA went to Libya (although at the time they were alleged to be seeking funds for an independent Ulster), but we do find it rather strange that they now don't even seem able to remember going.

THE April issue of the Marxist-backed football fanzine Marching Together has a picture on its front cover of two young men trying to sell copies of the equally reactionary Flag rag. Strangely, given the alleged anti-Nazi bent of Flag editor Martin "it's a safe bet, but watch your wife" Wingfield, one of the two is giving a Nazi salute.

This won't worry Wingfield's colleagues such as Steve Brady, who has a conviction for daubing swastikas and Nazi slogans on a scout hut. But the bonking bookie himself won't be pleased to learn that the young Hitlerite standing with his paper outside Elland Road is none other than Chris Parker, who recently elbowed aside "Beefy" Taylor to become the organizer of the fraction in Leeds.

THE Campaign for Palestinian Rights have asked us to help publicise the fact that the current Harrods wine list includes two wines produced in Israel on stolen Palestinian land. Our hordes of readers who shop at Harrods should avoid the plonk in question: Gamla, Cabernet Sauvignon and Yarden Sauvignon.

Lesser mortals should telephone protests on 01-730-1234, extension 2609 or 3090. Fax protests should be sent on 01-581-0470, telex number is 24319.

Please spread these numbers as widely as possible so that Harrods understand that providing Israel with the profits needed to finance its army of child murderers is bad for business.

JUSTICE!

ROBERTO FIORE, the Italian Third Position leader who has become a close friend of several NF leaders during his nine year exile in Britain, has received a clean bill of political health from the Home Office.

Back in 1981, Bow Street Magistrates Court gave the lie to the wild allegations of his involvement in violence in Italy when it rejected an Italian application for his extradition. The British Court examined his case and, concluding that the Italian court had no evidence against Roberto, allowed him to stay in this country.

But even after that, the Zionist/Marxist smear sheet Searchlight and various Labour Party extremists have been persecuting this refugee, whose 5 year gaol sentence back in Italy is for "subversive association", a "crime" which was introduced by Mussolini and which has been used to suppress political dissidents in that country ever since.

Their attacks on an innocent victim of Italian State corruption have also been picked up by sections of the mass media and used as a stick with which to beat the NF, because we have never tried to deny the fact that our political ideas have much in common with those of Roberto Fiore's group, Terza Posizione, or that Roberto is a friend of several key NF officials.

Terza Posizione were annihilated by the Italian State in the early 1980's as the result of a masonic organized destabilisation campaign throughout Italy.

LIBEL ACTIONS

Over the last two years Roberto has won a number of major libel actions against Italian newspapers which had wrongly linked him with the 1980 Bologna bombing. And last year he was awarded compensation by the Italian courts for having been falsely accused of the atrocity, which had proven to be the work of right-wing extremists aided by sections of the security forces controlled by the masonic P2 lodge.

It is now accepted throughout Italy that the young militants of Terza Posizione were indeed wrongly accused, imprisoned, tortured and in some cases murdered. In the course of its 2,000 page judgement upon the Bologna bombing, the Court of Assizes pointed out that P2 members in the security services, including Francesco Pazienza, were involved in a "long and articulate manoeuvre to misroute the enquiry." This involved the planting of a further bomb and leaks to the press, all of which were designed to point the finger at Fiore's group and to an alleged "international conspiracy" of national revolutionaries.

Since all this emerged, the media in this country have been much more careful about lying about Roberto's past. They have instead concentrated on his contact with the NF, trying to create an air of mystery and subversion. But the new Home Office decision not to deport him has put an end to such nonsense. The official report, upon which Home Secretary Douglas Hurd based his decision, concluded that there were no grounds upon which to deport Roberto or three other members of his group who also managed to escape from the persecution in Italy and came to this country.

It is obviously good news for our comrade to have his name cleared in this way, but it is also good news for the National Front. Because we too have been accused by some of our more despicable opponents of being "criminal".

They have said that we run military training camps and are organizing bombing campaigns in the name of Meibion Glyndwr, the Animal Liberation Front and racist Blacks in Wolverhampton. While we have sympathy with the aims of all these groups, we have repeatedly condemned their methods, but this hasn't stopped the media chorus of hate.

But now they must eat their words. For if the NF was involved in any illegal activities, then the Home Office would have had to deport Roberto Fiore because we have always been proud to confirm that he is indeed "associated" with us. And since his innocence has been officially acknowledged, then ours must also be.

1992: NORTH - SOUTH DIVIDE WILL SPREAD TO EUROPE

We're all aware that in the "United Kingdom" London has expanded to the detriment of other regions. This has caused the North - South divide and all the problems that are associated with it. This is bad enough and rightly has many people worried.

Now that the Europe of the merchants approaches in 1992 you might be forgiven for thinking the North-South divide is the lesser of many evils. But aside from giving the power, wealth and arms of Europe to even less people there is another worrying aspect of 1992.

It is very likely that a conurbation on the continent like the Ruhr industrial conurbation will become "Europe's London" and a European divide may occur leaving many Nations as impoverished as "North Britain."

It remains to be seen whether the leisure and high tech industries will save these regions: but nothing will stop big business from creating their United States of Europe - even mass poverty in some regions!

THATCHER TAKES US FOR A RIDE, BUSH TAKES US FOR A U.S. CRUISE

BRITAIN's role as Airstrip One for the Yanks is becoming ever more important to Washington as the rest of Europe steadily moves towards an end to 40 years of American occupation.

The latest Yankee trick is to replace the Cruise and Pershing missiles withdrawn from West Germany under the INF Treaty by basing more long-range nuclear bombers on our soil. Design work for blast-proof shelters for the first eight extra nuclear armed F1-11's is already complete. These will be followed by deployment of the new F15E aircraft. And the U.S. bombers based here will then be armed with stand-off cruise missiles.

So while the rest of Europe is beginning to see the chance to end the domination of our continent by the two Superpowers, the Tories are still trying to revive the "Cold War" - or even a hot one - and to increase our subservience to the Yank State.

A young, pregnant TP activist is falsely imprisoned in Italy

MR ENVIRONMENT GETS IT WRONG

A FEW interesting comments concerning conservation issues were made recently in a newspaper interview by a man who is the self-styled "Mr Environment", one David Attenborough.

Despite being the brother of the One World Drone, Dick Attenborough, David manages to make genuinely interesting and informative nature documentaries which are poles apart from the trendy rubbish like Ghandi and Cry Freedom. But are his true colours green or rather liberal?

as he does the fact that we need it for our very existence.

Nationalists, however, with our coherent and developing world view and spiritual values see it in this different way.

NATURAL LAW

The Natural Law that mother nature conforms perfectly to is also binding upon mankind. As we possess a rational nature we have been appointed with the sacred task of caring for our environment, whether some people like it or not. Because we do possess the gifts of reason and free will we have been bestowed with the ability to progress and subsequently to have a major bearing on our surroundings. And with that comes our sacred duty to ensure the continued nurturing of our God given cradle.

We are not a species somehow separated from nature, as Communists would see it. We are literally a part of it because of our dependence on it for our continued material wellbeing and survival.

So once again we see that the clucking liberal turkeys completely fail to grasp the true nature and implications of the issues that affect our lives.

SCALE OF VALUE

Whilst talking of the need to convince people of the seriousness of the environmental problem Attenborough, in typical liberal fashion, does not seem to be able to understand the necessary scale of values.

In one breath: "It really is life and death because if we poison the air and sea we will poison ourselves, and if we destroy the ozone layer we will all get cancer." Attenborough hits the nail on the head so far, but in the next breath tries to place the same importance on saving the environment because it is nice to look at. "We have to fight for our wildlife and wild places because they are a source of delight and joy and interest".

All of this is fair enough in so far as it goes, but how typical of the liberal with his lack of values to place the same importance upon saving our environment because it is nice to look

MOVEMENT AIMS TO CONTACT BLACK COMMUNITY IN VAUXHALL ELECTION

SEPARATIST CAMPAIGN

THE NATIONAL FRONT is contesting the by-election in Vauxhall, South London, on June 15th. This is the first parliamentary election that the Movement has contested since 1983, so we need to do two things.

First, explain why we are bothering to take part in the parliamentary circus. And secondly, to raise the money to fight the campaign.

Parliamentary "representation" is a hoax! It is not real democracy, just a cloak for rule by wealthy and powerful vested interests. So it is not possible to use parliament to change the system in this country. There is no parliamentary road to the National Revolution!

But it is possible to use parliamentary institutions to make propaganda points. We find that the raised levels of political consciousness at an election make them a good time to distribute propaganda material. Normally the NF does this by running "Don't Vote" campaigns to expose the fraud of parliamentary representation.

ABILITY

But we still need to keep our ability to contest national elections, so that a change in the political climate which could lead to temporarily raised NF votes could be used to provide long term organizational gains. So our electoral machine must be oiled and tested every now and again.

More importantly still, the Vauxhall constituency includes Brixton, so this is the first opportunity to put across our separatist beliefs, as opposed to the old racist image.

Our campaign slogan is "Send Them a Message." It asks voters to protest over the three main issues in the area: crime; housing and race. The real breakthrough which makes this campaign worth undertaking is the endorsement of our candidate by a leading Black American separatist, a staunch promoter of repatriation to Africa.

The size of our vote doesn't matter at this stage. But our image does. And having a Black separatist on an NF leaflet in Brixton will not go unnoticed!

Our local members have chosen as their candidate NF Directorate member, Patrick Harrington, who was born and educated in the area.

Readers will remember his brave struggle for the right to an education at the Marxist infested Polytechnic of North London.

Of course, for the campaign to have maximum effect it is going to cost a lot of money. To take advantage of this very rare opportunity, we need to raise a total of £1,500. The Movement has many exciting projects underway which all cost money so it is vital that the money needed to run the Vauxhall campaign is raised from scratch. We cannot afford to be left with a big hole in finances put aside for other equally important and necessary projects.

You will surely agree that the true face of the National Front must be seen by as many people as possible. So please do whatever you can to make this vital campaign effective.

We may not contest another such election for years, so don't miss the boat.

Activist urges blacks to return to Africa, form new nation

If it is true that large dreams can inspire more than small tangible benefits, then Jack Mitchell of Orlando is probably right that a pan African nationalist movement — in the United States — will be a hot topic in the 1990s.

Mitchell's idea is that American blacks — those who wish to — should return to Africa to form a new nation. To finance it, he likes the idea of reparations, not only from white Americans to black American descendants of slaves but also from Europeans for their exploitation of the African continent.

Such a movement, Mitchell believes, will be not only the salvation of American blacks but of the African continent. He thinks that American blacks have the skills, technology and know-how to lead the African continent to its rightful position in world affairs.

Don't write dumb letters accusing me of being a racist cad who wants to ship American blacks to Africa. These are not my ideas. I've known Jack Mitchell for about 17 years. I think he deserves to have his ideas published. I think white Americans should understand that more is going on among thinking blacks than trying to elect Jesse Jackson president.

Mitchell has organized his own movement, which he calls the Pan African Inter-National movement. The acronym spells PAIN and that is no accident. Mitchell has moved, in his own thinking, from an activist with the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to an activist with the Congress on Racial Equality to his thinking now, which is inspired by Marcus Garvey.

Charley Reese

OF THE SENTINEL STAFF

Garvey, a Jamaican, inspired and organized what the Encyclopedia Britannica calls the largest and most significant black movement in the 20th century. It was Garvey's idea for blacks to return to Africa. His organization, United Negro Improvement Association, reached its height in 1920 when delegates from 25 nations assembled in New York.

Like Garvey, Mitchell believes in racial pride, separation, economic independence and nationhood. He thinks the other approach is a dead end and mentions the disintegration of the black family, the crime, the drugs that he says are annihilating blacks.

"We gave the civil rights aristocracy — the integrationists — a long time and what is there to show for it? My people are worse off now than they were before. As long as we stay here, too many of my people will remain tied to the umbilical cord of the white man, afraid and not knowing that they can stand on their own," he said.

"My opposition is from my own people, and I know a massive education campaign is needed, but I want at least to put the idea on the agenda of public debate. People say I will never see this in my lifetime. I don't believe that. Some things are ordained by cosmic forces. Those who are at the bottom can be brought to the top. I believe it.

"What the civil rights aristocracy today is doing is just hustling for privileges, but my people must realize that as long we are here, where we are in a minority position, we shall always be subordinate," he said.

Mitchell said he has found that some black Americans had difficulty in dealing with their ties to Africa — and that some whites react with hostility to his idea of separation rather than assimilation.

"But separation does not mean that we forgo harmonious cooperation," he said. "That is the difference between separation and segregation."

"For the first time in my life," he said, "I am at peace. I know this is the right thing. I'm a Garveyite."

I'm not black, so I don't know if it's right. I know he is right that something terrible is happening to black Americans at the bottom end of the ladder.

I also know that many American liberals, so thoroughly materialistic themselves, have forgotten that human beings are as much as spirit as flesh. Dreams and aspirations, not handouts, nourish the spirit.

Yes! I want to help spread the NF's message of racial separatism and enclose a donation towards the Vauxhall campaign. I do/do not wish my donation to be acknowledged with my initials and town in NF News.

THE struggle for racial separatism is not an easy one. In all communities, black and white, there are those who possess no vision whatever of a future world, and thus fall under the spell of the curse of integrationism or of racial hatred. Both views, whilst diametrically opposed on a superficial level, actually result in the same end: the destruction of races, cultures and identities. How is this so?

Well, the first achieves this despicable end through racial intermarriage, so that both Black and White give way to a hotch potch without roots, without history. In the second case, this is achieved through race war, for the logical consequence of inter-racial hostility, if it is not solved by dialogue between people of good will, is a war of all against all. In other words, the very White communities which we cherish will perish in an ocean of blood. Neither approach is acceptable to the revolutionary nationalists of the National Front.

Illustrated is a recent cutting from Orlando, Florida, USA which features our good friend, Jack Mitchell (aka Osiris Akkebal), of the Pan African International Movement. The article tells of his struggle to build a Garveyite movement in the USA which will return Blacks to Africa in order that they might build a new nation upon their own soil and in their own cultural environment.

Mitchell has not always been a separatist; for quite some time he believed that integration was the way forward to a harmonious world. However, unlike many of his community, Jack Mitchell has had the honesty to admit that he was wrong, and that repatriation to the African continent is the only solution to the racial problem in America.

The fact that the Orlando Sentinel, which is an Establishment paper, has written up Jack Mitchell's position in relatively objective terms shows that there is an undercurrent — as yet not openly expressed — in American society which is moving in the direction of complete racial separatism. It further shows that our ideals are being carried out by peoples of other races with the same intention.

Thus the next time you meet an integrationist or a bigot, treat him for what he is — ancient history. The future lies with racial separatism, a policy advocated only by the Movement of the Future — the National Front.

FROM SACRIFICE COMES VICTORY!

"ALBERT MARINER - gone but never forgotten."

This was the message from East London National Front stalwarts for the sixth year running on the anniversary of his death.

Pensioner, Albert, was murdered in 1983 by a stone throwing mob, wound up by a Labour Party leaflet calling for people to physically oppose the NF, at a lawful NF election meeting in North London.

Albert was hit on the head by a rock thrown by one of the Labour Party thugs, suffered concussion and died a few days later.

A memorial notice was placed in the Times and a party of East London activists and supporters laid a wreath in the shape of the Cross of St. George upon his grave in Plaistow.

DEBT FINANCE MISERY COULD EXPLODE SOON

THE massive debt-finance problem that burdens the Americas and the Caribbean, and is causing untold misery and suffering for thousands of families could be set to explode soon.

In 1970, Latin America's external debt totalled $23,000 million. Nearly twenty years later it stands at $401,000 million plus. And it is rising so quickly that the bankers are having to wipe billions of dollars off the slate in a desperate attempt to delay their own self-destruction.

Between 1976 and 1981 the banks lent out $272.9 billion and immediately grabbed back $170.5 billion as actual debt and interest repayment. From 1981-87, just $180 billion was repaid. And from the 1976-81 loans just $22.9 billion eventually entered the Latin American market place.

Hence the recent food riots in Argentina, with inflation rising at more than 100% per week. It is a phenomenon common to the Americas that is going to explode with deadly consequences for Capitalism.

INDIAN CUSTOM UNDER ATTACK

Since 1884 "spirit dancing" by Indians in Western Canada has been banned to keep down Indian Nationalism. However, the ancient custom has continued in secret and by 1981 the ban was removed after nearly a century. Since then it has gained popularity as a way of instilling pride in a people whose traditional way of life was being destroyed by Anglo-American cultural imperialism.

However, one Salish Indian who was an excessive drinker died as a result of the custom, which initiates young Indians into manhood and which sometimes includes swimming in icy waters and running over snow covered hills.

The local coroner Mr Richard Walton, urged the Indians to review their use of the age old tradition and there have even been calls for a renewed ban. A spokesman for the Indians has said that "We could not alter the things we do."

As a paper of principled Nationalism National Front News supports every people prepared to stand up for and to value their own traditions. We are pleased to see that yet another Indian tribe has refused to abandon its ancestral culture for the withering drive of 20th century conformity.

A THIRD WAY FOR MENEM'S ARGENTINA?

THE wave of press hysteria over the election of Peronist candidate, Carlos Menem, in Argentina, should have prompted anyone who knows anything about the methods of the Capitalist press to consider what the relatively unknown Menem could possibly have done to upset the Western Establishment.

Headlines in usually subtle papers like the Independent and Sunday Times screamed of "The Poison of Peronism" and the "Poll Disaster as Chaos hits Argentina."

The reason is simple. Carlos Menem won his landslide victory by uniting a huge proportion of his people - true Peronists, extreme but sincere leftists, sections of the military and the unions, students and peasants - on one basic issue. While the poor of Argentina starve and while the middle classes see their savings destroyed by rampant inflation, over a third of all the wealth produced by this rich country goes to pay off the interest on fraudulent loans "owed" to foreign banks. Menem has promised to end this scandal with five years suspension of payments, if not outright repudiation.

DESPERATE MONEY MEN

With dozens of other debtor nations around the world just waiting to follow such a lead, the international money men are desperate to discredit the Peronist regime before it can take action.

And to add to their worries, it is reported that Menem is sympathetic to the struggle of the Libyan people. The mere suggestion of possible ideological links between Third Positionist Libya and one of the most heavily indebted countries in their corrupt grasp, is enough to give the bankers nightmares. Their political stooges are already beginning to call for Menem's blood and he has yet to take office.

It is not clear yet to what extent Menem does tend towards Third Position ideas. There is certainly a strong and growing section of the Peronist Justicialist party which is greatly influenced by this ideology, of which Evita and Juan Peron were clearly precursors.

Only time will tell whether this tendency is strong enough to lead the new Peronist regime into our camp. Nor is it clear whether Menem will be able to clear up the economic and social mess left by reactionary army officers and liberal democratic politicians.

But in spite of the difficulties facing Menem when he takes over office in December, it is at least a start that a man pledged to take on the corruption of the international banking swindle has been elected.

We wish him well and pray that the memory of Evita will not be betrayed.

Juan Peron, right. His name still strikes fear into the World Establishment. Peron and Evita, above right. Their marriage was one that wed national freedom to social justice.

NUCLEAR COVER-UP

ALARMING details of a massive cover up of problems at a giant Atomic Weapons plant near Aitken, South Carolina have just come to light. A sub committee of Congress examining nuclear arms production at the plant has found details of many accidents which had been kept secret for up to 30 years.

Reactors on the site shut down unexpectedly nine to eleven times a year between 1971 and 1987. A whole series of accidents were recorded, the most serious being an accident in 1965 when a leak led to a coolant spillage which came close to destroying the reactor. A recent earthquake in the Mid-West shook up to 6 nuclear power stations.

CHINESE PLAY THE CHAIN GAME

AFTER weeks of massive student-led unrest in China, attracting crowds hundreds of thousands strong, the protest seems to be flagging with the geriatric Communist Party hierarchy in-fighting at status quo.

Affected by Gorbachev's glasnost and perestroika in the Soviet Union, and the growing feebleness of the old guard CP bosses, the Chinese masses took to the streets in force demanding change.

But instead of seeking a third way, a potential revolutionary situation turned into a protest of mass reaction, indicating yet again the gradual synthesis of the two dominant political systems in the world.

It soon became clear that the call for social change was nothing more than a call for China to move towards Western Democracy; in reality, rule by the privileged and vested interests. It was a call for State Capitalism to be replaced by Bosses Capitalism.

But it is not really surprising that the masses living under Socialism should aspire towards the Western system. All that we are witnessing is a reversal of the situation seen in many Western countries in previous decades when millions of dis-satisfied workers turned towards Socialism as a remedy for the social oppression that they keenly felt under Capitalist exploitation.

The masses, their minds numbed by life-long indoctrination from the media and State history books, their spirit of resistance sapped by physical or financial pressure to conform to the drudgery of economic and social dependence, have lost the ability to think beyond their immediate needs and base instincts. They can only follow or react.

They have lost the sense of nobility and vision that comes from the soul and turned into a teeming mass of materialist drones.

They are unable to see that both Socialism and Capitalism lead to the same end; social and economic control over their lives, and that both systems have as their root the same liberal ethic that has plagued mankind through the ages, manifesting itself triumphantly in the French Revolution.

Hence the teeming Chinese masses have turned their attention to the System's alternative system; prepared to starve to death in protest so that they can swap their short chains for longer ones. But chains are chains whatever their length.

TOO LITTLE TOO LATE

THE Scandinavian countries - Finland, Denmark, Norway and Sweden - have many environmental problems. These have included the seal virus which has killed off most of the indigenous population of seals, a plague of poisonous algae, and the de-oxygenation of their domestic waters.

But at long last the Scandinavian environmental ministers have adopted a plan to cut the heavy metal phosphorus and nitrogen pollution of the northern seas by half by 1995. Although we should be glad at the result of the meeting many environmental organizations and fishermen have said that the move is "too little too late" and that the agreement will do little to alleviate immediately the problems of the North Sea and the Baltic.

Greed for profit and a juvenile fixation on economic growth are the root causes of the pollution. Both the so-called "free" West and the so-called "unfree" East play a form of environmental brinkmanship, hoping that they can squeeze that last pound of profit out of the environment before their greed catches up with them.

By complete contrast Nationalists believe that a healthy environment is essential to the well being of the people. Nature should come first, not last.

POWER TO THE PEOPLE

THE "BACKWOODS" named herdsmen of Inner Mongolia, at present ruled by China, buy 15,000 wind turbines every year. These are used to provide clean, cheap and renewable power for lighting, television and re-charging truck batteries.

An article about this in the New Scientist of 11th march 1989 shows just how pathetic Britain's alternative power industry is - imagine being behind Inner Mongolia in developing and using wind generators!

A COURAGEOUS AND MORAL DECISION

THE Home Secretary's decision to allow Italian Third Position leader Roberto Fiore to stay in Britain is welcome news. We never doubted that the Home Office investigation into his case would establish beyond doubt the fact that this young man is in no way involved with criminal or subversive activities. But we feared that the government might ignore the facts and expell him nevertheless for a quiet life, or that powerful interests would attempt to subvert the course of justice as was done in Italy during the investigation into the horrific Bologna bombing and similar atrocities.

In the event, justice prevailed. Regular readers will know that NFN rarely has a good word for the Establishment but in this case they have for once acted correctly and honourably. So we are happy to give credit where credit is due and to thank the Home Office for this courageous and moral decision.

INNOCENCE BY ASSOCIATION

As our report of the case pointed out, the media have used the presence of Roberto Fiore to launch a series of guilt by association smears against our Movement. Now that the false and immoral accusations made against him by the Italian State have been completely rejected out of hand, not only by a British Court but by the Home Office as well, and now that he has been accepted as a law-abiding citizen of this country, logic and justice demand that the National Front benefits from "innocence by association" as well. The finding that Fiore is not associated with criminal activity and that he poses no threat to the people of this country means, quite simply, that the Home Office (i.e. Security Services) file shows that the National Front is neither criminal nor subversive. This official decision will further weaken the credibility of the absurd claims to the contrary of Gerry Gable and Co.

The National Front has gained from this in another way too. Back in 1986, there were those then within our ranks who wanted to surrender to the pressure of the smears, to break contact and to throw Roberto to the tender mercy of the media pigs. This outrageous cowardice was compounded when these people formed the Flag faction after their expulsion and fed tales about him to the press in an effort to damage the NF and to get this persecuted young man sent back to the same fate as other members of the Third Position organization who "committed suicide" in prison in Italy.

The present leadership of the National Front consistently resisted any such treachery, and this stance has now been fully vindicated. As a result, it is more plain than ever that the National Front stands by its own. Let the world take note: we look after our friends, just as we are relentless in dealing with people who decide to become our enemies.

BRITAIN'S HUMAN FACTOR

OUR rulers in Westminster are putting the finishing touches to a plan to give nearly three and a half million Hong Kong Chinese the "right" to settle in Britain. This is clear from the "kite-flying" articles which are appearing more and more frequently in Establishment newspapers such as the Times and Telegraph.

The issue has been raised in connection with the handover of Hong Kong to China in 1997. The Commons Select Committee on Foreign Affairs has heard repeated claims that issuing British passports to all Hong Kong residents would be a mere formality, a simple matter to set their minds at rest by proving that if life under Peking isn't cosy enough, they can all troop over to Britain. With this "insurance policy" tucked away in their safe deposit boxes, goes the argument, the three and a half million Britons would happily stay in their cramped little corner of the Far East.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

This is clearly nonsense, and dangerous nonsense at that. Make no mistake, our nations are now in grave danger of mass Chinese immigration which will make the Ugandan and Kenyan Asian influxes look like a small Sunday school picnic.

You don't have to take our word for it. Just look between the lines of an editorial in the Sunday Times of 11th May 1989, entitled Hong Kong's Human Factor.

The 1982 Nationality Act is shortly going to be altered to allow vast numbers of Hong Kong Chinese to pour in here. You can't expect a plainer warning than that. Nor does the Sunday Times make any real effort to conceal the one thing which could prevent this disaster: "widespread concern about the level and nature of immigration into this country."

It was this concern, manifested in the mass popular appeal of the NF in the late 1970's, which led to the belated and inadequate strengthening of immigration controls in the 1982 Act. And such concern, organized under the NF banner once again - but this time harnessed to more permanent effect - is the only thing which can stop the Yellow Invasion. We must organize our people and our communities in good time to defend the human factor of these islands - our European identity and heritage.

DEAR EDITOR

WHY?

Dear Sir,

Reading the results of the recent Budget has incensed me so much that I must write.

As one newspaper quite rightly pointed out, Nigel Lawson has done it again. The man is totally incapable of being Chancellor. The only thing he can do is to smirk in a nauseating, self-satisfied manner whilst brandishing a tattered old red case.

As usual, it is the poor who suffer; those who really need help get next to nothing - apart from a measly £3 due to a slight adjustment in National Insurance contributions. But what the mighty give they also take back, and inflation, rises in water rates, electricity, higher interest rates, poll tax etc will more than nullify this pittance.

The most bitter pill of all has to be the 80% pay rise for the Duke and Duchess of York. In hard cash this is £68, 900 a year extra. Even the modest 4% pay rise for the Queen brings her earnings up to a massive £4,658,000 per year, whilst the Queen Mother's earnings have now climbed to £404,000 per year (a mere £7,769 per week, or exactly 185 times the amount received by the average pensioner!)

Add to the above the huge payments made to the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Prince Consort and the plethora of minor "royals" and we arrive at a truly horrendous figure.

Can the country really afford this? Is the Royal Family worth it? I think not!

The Chancellor has a surplus of £14 billion which he claims he cannot spend due to the "economic miracle" he alleges this country is experiencing. What a joke!

Government money is urgently needed for so many things that I hardly know where to begin! Amongst the most pressing are:

THE NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE

Poorly paid and overworked nursing staff, huge waiting lists for minor and other operations, insufficient hospital beds, dilapidated and inferior buildings and low standards of accommodation and hygiene. These defects can not be remedied on the present meagre government spending.

THE NATIONAL ROAD NETWORK

With the ever-increasing use of our road network (2,000,000 new cars were registered last year) it is disgusting that only half a mile of motorway was built. This lack of new investment in road building hampers industry and development.

The poorly surfaced and badly marked roads for night driving are in urgent need of attention. Their inadequate lighting and ludicrously slow-working road repair bureaucrats cause massive delays, frustration and aggression leading to accidents and death.

All road repair and maintenance work, including installation of steel bars on central reservations should be carried out during the night and at weekends in order to avoid long delays.

The millions of pounds received by the government in motor taxes should be spent exclusively on the roads.

THE NATIONAL RAIL NETWORK

Something must be done quickly

A THOUGHT PROVOKING ISSUE

Dear Sir,

I found NFN 116 a genuinely thought provoking experience, not least because I found articles to both agree and disagree with.

American Indians do indeed have little to celebrate as repressed nations within the Empire of the Hamburger. The French patriotic journal Elements put the death toll under European colonization at an incredible 14 million. Such genocide deserves to be exposed.

No doubt Ronald "Mad dog" Reagan would doubt his mind about tribes abandoning their identity if he would only realise the tourist potential! (Just

LACK OF VARIETY

Comrades,

I have just picked up my copy of NFN (issue no. 115), which is up to its usual high standards. I feel that I must put pen to paper and comment on certain items which are available through the Distributist League, namely some of the T-Shirts.

You would think that by looking at the T-Shirts that skinheads/Oi people are the only musically inclined people who buy NFN. So come on NFN, how about some heavy metal/ thrash/ folk/ country and western T-Shirts for all us non-skinheads?

Yours in the struggle,
B.C., Rainham, Essex.

The National Health Service, the national road and rail network, domestic and industrial waste, family welfare and housing. All have suffered in Thatcher's Free Market-place.

about the inadequate supervision and checking of new signal installations (witness Clapham, Purley and Glasgow). The present shortage of maintenance staff for the rails is dangerous and must be rectified (or do we need yet another rail disaster before the authorities take action)?

In view of the notorious unreliability, lack of punctuality and dirty state of the trains it is clear that British Rail do not provide value for money and the exorbitant fares charged are simply not justified.

DOMESTIC AND INDUSTRIAL WASTE

Government funding is urgently needed for the cleaning-up and careful disposal of dangerous industrial waste. Domestic waste can be put to a useful purpose in providing energy. Not enough is being done to encourage the recycling of paper, bottles, tins and other household waste.

Schemes should be introduced similar to those which have been running successfully in West Germany for some time.

Money is needed for heating, food and mortgage subsidies for families on low

SQUALID AND INADEQUATE PRISONS

Dear NFN readers,

The recent roof-top demonstrations at Risley remand centre, Cheshire, are just the latest show of anger at the squalid and inadequate conditions that these people have to endure.

Well you might say, they've broken the law and therefore need to be taught a lesson, but is it any way to treat human beings like animals? No! The prisons in this country are very overcrowded and very underfinanced.

Facts are emerging that food is often cold and served at unreasonable hours. Prisoners on remand (those awaiting trial, not even been found guilty by a court) are quite often locked in their cells for 23 hours a day.

The bottom line is that these men and women who are guilty should pay for their crimes, but this country should redesign the whole prison service and treat our prisoners with some respect.

Yours sincerely,
M.B., South London.

income.

The elderly, most of whom have served their country in peace and war and have worked so hard all their lives, surely deserve more than near starvation or death from hypothermia!

HOUSING

Thousands of families have to live in over-priced and squalid little guest houses because they are unable to afford the absurd property prices.

Why is the government not building proper accommodation (and I do not mean cheap high-rise blocks which fall down around their ears) in surroundings conducive to a peaceful and contented home-life. Do they not realise that forcing people to live in sordid, dirty, noisy homes situated in unpleasant areas can only lead to social problems such as aggression and crime?

The National Front really is the last hope for Social Justice and a happier and more prosperous country. Please do not let your compatriots down!

Yours faithfully,
S.C., East Anglian FOM.

THANKS

Dear Friends and Comrades,

I would like to take this opportunity in order to express the complete satisfaction and deep gratitude that I feel for the way everyone has faithfully devoted so much time and energy to the support of a fellow nationalist.

It is only by being in such an awful situation that one actually discovers the meaning of true comradeship. I have been pleasantly surprised at how fighting for a common cause and in a common struggle can unite folk to such an extent.

Thanks to all those who have sent cards and letters of support. I only wish that I could reply to you all. I will never forget what everyone has done for myself and for my family. Thank you.

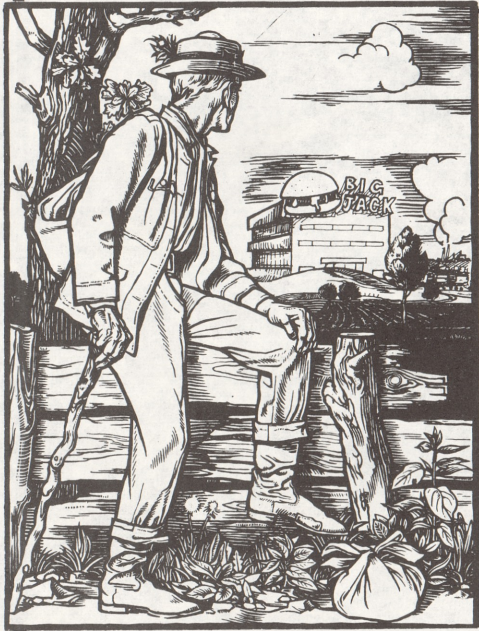

Yours for national revolution,
T.S., Lewes, Sussex.

THE FRONT LINE

BECOME A FRIEND OF THE MOVEMENT

IT'S THE LEAST YOU CAN DO!

RECENT years have seen a welcome increase in environmental concern amongst large sections of the population. But these years have also seen a very unwelcome populist "concern" from many quarters which in reality seeks to exploit genuine concern for petty short term political gain. The hypocritical pandering of these people to the green vote is truly sickening. How can people whose philosophy is based upon exploitation, greed and materialism possibly care for anything but themselves. If man's guardianship of the natural world is fundamental to your world view, then why not join an association of like minded people? That association is Friends of the Movement.

To become a member of this association it costs a mere £15 per year - in other words we are asking you to give less than 29 pence a week to help save our country. Surely it's the least you can do!

In return you will receive a FOM card, we will keep you updated with important developments and achievements in our work and you will gain the satisfaction of knowing that you are playing an important part in our struggle. Quite apart from allowing us to carry on with, and expand, our work, Friends of the Movement play the important role of acting as the eyes and ears of the Movement in the population.

I would like to become a Friend of the Movement and enclose a cheque/postal order for £15 in favour of Friends of the Movement.

WINDBAGS

THE Marxist-led Welsh Language Society (Cymdeithas yr Iaith Gymraeg) has launched an hysterical attack on the campaign being carried out by the NF in Chester and on the Wirral against the sale by estate agents of holiday homes in North Wales.

The chairman of the Society's international relations group made the absurd claim that the Front initiative could "seriously damage" its own efforts to deal with the problem. This has not been the attitude of a number of Welsh people who have approached our "Don't Murder Wales" pickets to express their thanks and support.

But such a bigotted response is typical of the Marxist windbags who have wormed their way into Cymdeithas yr Iaith Gymraeg. Their hostility towards the NF has also led them to accuse us of involvement in the direct action campaign against new homes being built for tax exiles in the Isle of Man. This is, of course, untrue, although it is the case that recent months have seen a significant increase in the amount of recruitment from the Celtic nations.

ULSTER NF BREAK THROUGH OLD DIVIDE IN MAY ELECTIONS

ULSTER A NATION

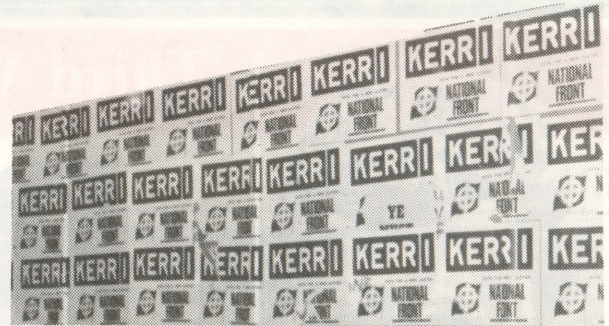

THE results of the Ulster NF's two local election campaigns were, as expected, poor in terms of votes, but very useful in terms of breaking the old mould of sectarian politics and planning future strategy.

David Kerr, our candidate in Newtownabbey, received 41 votes - up on his last total of 27. Stuart McCullough stood in the Pottinger ward of East Belfast, receiving only 27 votes. But the figures conceal a number of important factors.

The press refused to acknowledge that Stuart was an NF candidate. In spite of repeated complaints, they referred to him as an "independent" right up until polling day.

The Ulster NF has a number of other important projects underway, so was unable to afford to produce election addresses for more than a small section of the electorate. Obviously, it would have been most productive in terms of votes to have distributed them in loyalist areas. But it was decided at the start of the campaign to sacrifice possible votes for longer term considerations. So the addresses were sent to Catholic parts of the wards - areas where no "unionist" bigot would ever bother to send an election address; just as the "non-sectarian" Marxist bigots of Sinn Fein never send their leaflets to Protestant areas.

Our candidates were surprised and gratified to find that analysis of first and second preference votes (local elections in Ulster are carried out under a PR system, but second preference votes are not counted until you pass a certain first preference threshold) indicated that at least 20% of the NF vote came from Catholics. Also very noticeable was the large number of second preference votes cast in our favour amongst loyalist voters.

These facts show that the NF's call for loyalty to a new Ulster rather than to Dublin or London has an appeal to both communities.

Our activists are aware, however, that it will take a huge amount of effort to convert such potential. The next step along this long road will be the distribution of their forthcoming discussion document on the need for and viability of an independent Ulster.

Called Alternative Ulster, it will be available shortly. The struggle continues!

LIBRARY DONATIONS

THE MOVEMENT's Newcastle unit is one of several to receive publicity from its donation of Green Books to local libraries.

Newcastle, Hounslow and Redbridge NF units have all gained valuable publicity for the Movement on this controversial subject and kept us firmly in the public eye.

If your unit hasn't even managed to get down to the local library yet, you should be asking yourself, and your committee, why not?

A gift is . . . Gadaffi books

TWO books by Libyan leader Col Gadaffi have been donated to a central library.

The books were handed in by the Newcastle branch of the National Front which claims to have sole distribution rights to the publication in the UK.

Last week, Newcastle librarians decided to display them in the reference library.

Michael Young, at the Central Library, said: "We read them in case they were illegal. They could have been if they incited racial hatred."

"But although the views published seem a bit strange, they don't incite racial hatred. We have publications by all sorts of people, including Adolph Hitler."

The "Green Book" and "Commentary on the Green Book" were handed into the library by Colin Todd, North-East Regional Organiser for the National Front.

He said: "I have found it very interesting to note the favourable reaction of those who have actually read the works as opposed to those who simply condemn and react from a state of ignorance."

Meanwhile, Mr Young said more copies of the controversial Salman Rushdie book "The Satanic Verses" had been ordered by the library because of public demand.

Remember the Cause in your Will

We wish our readers and supporters a long and healthy life, but for all of us the time for departure must eventually come. We feel that everyone will wish, when this time does arrive, to leave something behind that will help to carry on the struggle.

You can help the Cause when you are gone by making provision in your Will for those who will be doing the fighting after you. You can do this by bequeathing money to the National Front. Make sure you remember the National Front when you make out your Will. If you have already written your Will add a codicil for the benefit of the Movement. If you are unsure about any of the legal technicalities in arranging this, please do not hesitate to contact our Legal Department or see your own solicitor and he or she will advise. A short time ago the National Front benefitted from a substantial amount of money left to it by a deceased supporter. You too can help in this way. Can you think of a better way to go?

A Third Way Beyond Capitalism and Communism

REMEMBER ABERGALE MARTYRS

JUNE 30th is the twentieth Anniversary of the deaths of two brave men who made the ultimate sacrifice in the cause of Welsh freedom. And the following day is the twentieth anniversary of a day of shame for Wales, when the latest in a long series of foreign usurpers was invested with the title of "Prince of Wales."

George Taylor and Alwyn Jones were members of Mudiad Amddiffyn Cymru (Movement for the Defence of Wales) who were killed when planting a bomb to protest against the investiture of "Charlie the Greek."

The bomb, like all those planted by the MAC and the Free Wales Army, was positioned and timed so as to damage State property only, without any risk of injury to innocent bystanders.

Both men knew the risks that they were taking and realized the importance of their struggle. They bore the mark of men destined for martyrdom, fired by a mystic and all-empowering spirit, disregarding their own personal interest in the drive to save our people from oppression and soul-destroying materialism.

STATE CONTEMPT

We can never condone the dangerous methods used by the MAC, yet anyone who studies and understands the circumstances must sympathise with and understand their desperation to do something to save this country.

The British State had shown complete contempt for protests by constitutional and peaceful means, and lack of a sound ideological base prevented the development of a radical programme to build a community-based counter-power to the State.

So, as with the present day Meibion Glyndwr, we sympathise with them, and while we condemn their methods we refuse to condemn them as organizations or individuals. Those so called "nationalists" who do condemn them are not fit to lick their boots! The materialism and subservience of these people to the system they claim to oppose is total and sickening.

George Taylor and Alwyn Jones are also important because their example reminds us that the national revolutionary cause in Wales is not open only to Welsh speakers. Neither of them were able to speak the language, although they were learning it before their tragic deaths.

So we urge all nationalists to attend the memorial service for these two Welsh Martyrs at Abergale on 1st July. Ffrynt Cenedlaethol Cymru militants will be there in a personal capacity as we do not wish to make political capital out of such a solemn event.

A standardised letter received by FfC Cymru calls for all Welsh patriots to assemble in Caernarfon on July 1st and to put aside political and ideological differences for this solemn gathering of commemoration. We do not expect that the Westminster collaborators and petty minded leaders of Plaid Cymru will attend but we hope that we will see grass-roots Plaid men and women attending in their droves. We also hope that the neo-Marxist fainthearts of groups such as the Welsh Language Society will observe the solemnity of the occasion and not seek to interfere with our act of remembrance.

WE also remember Vivian George Davies - murdered by the State, July 26th, 1981.
From Sacrifice comes Victory.

JULY 1st

CAERNARFON

PROTEST AGAINST THE USURPER OF WALES!

THIS 1st of July is also the 20th anniversary of the investiture of Charles Windsor as "Prince of Wales" in Caernarfon Castle in 1969. Since the last legitimate bearer of that title was slain by Saxon/Norman troops on 11th December 1282, the usurpation of this title in an attempt to con the Welsh people into giving allegiance to a figurehead of the Westminster State is an insult to us all.

Now, Charles Windsor can't help being the eldest son of his family. Nor could he be expected back in 1969 to know how his forebears had worked tirelessly to destroy the very identity of Wales. After all, he admitted himself that "I am not very up on Welsh history."

But since he is supposed to be "Prince of Wales", he could take a genuine interest in Welsh affairs. He could do something to draw attention to continuing mass youth unemployment in the valleys. He could press for investment in light industry to bring jobs to rural areas. He could ask where the social justice is of having so much of Wales owned by absentee landlords (although that might encourage the people of Kernow to ask the same question). He could set up a trust to provide funds to further the study and use of the Welsh language.

He could do all these things. He does do these things for some people in these islands - but not for the Welsh, not for the Ulster folk, not the Scots or even the English. Hardly a week goes by without some big press feature about this multi-racist drip oozing sympathy and cash for West Indian business ventures in Birmingham or Asian cultural centres in London.

We don't object to young West Indians getting the business experience they need to be valuable citizens in their homelands after repatriation. And we would far rather see Asians brought up as Asians before returning to their lands than see any success in the Tory drive to destroy their culture and heritage and turn them into "Brown British Capitalists".

But Charles Windsor concentrates almost exclusively on the interests of non-European immigrant minorities, and doesn't give a damn about the oldest nation in "his" future kingdom. This shows him to be totally unfit to be "Prince of Wales" - even if we needed such an outdated figurehead, which we certainly do not!

Nationalists everywhere must remember this and condemn any manifestation of a "celebration" of 20 years of Charlie the Greek. And most important of all, the Abergele memorial meeting should be followed by a demonstration in Caernarfon itself to show that we still do not accept this creature of the System as "our" prince. The last Welsh Prince died in 1282.

Long live his memory - and Long Live the Welsh Republic!
